

“As of December 12, 2016, our accreditor, Accrediting Council for Independent Colleges and Schools (ACICS), is no longer recognized by the U.S. Department of Education. Elmira Business Institute has 18 months following the loss of our recognized accreditation to find a new accrediting agency to maintain eligibility to receive funds under the Title IV, HEA programs. If Elmira Business Institute does not obtain accreditation within that 18 month period, which ends June 12, 2018, our school will no longer be eligible to receive funds under Title IV, HEA programs.

If any student has a complaint relating to Elmira Business Institute’s Title IV eligibility, administration of the Title IV programs, the quality of education received at Elmira Business Institute, or otherwise relating to the accreditation standards of ACICS they can submit that complaint to Elmira Business Institute, Kathleen Hamilton, Senior Vice President of Administration, 303 North Main Street, Elmira, NY 14901, or any of the following entities:

- State Attorney General Eric T. Schneiderman, Office of the Attorney General, The Capitol, Albany, NY 12224-0341
- New York State Department of State, Division of Consumer Protection, Consumer Assistance Unit, 99 Washington Ave, Albany, NY 12231-0001
- Office of Higher Education: NYSED, New York State Education Department, Office of Higher Education, Room 977 Education Building Annex, Albany, NY 12234”
