What is Title IX?

Understand your Rights and Responsibilities

Understand what support and resources are available to you

Understand how to report
a Title IX concern

What is Title IX?

“No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving federal financial assistance.”

Title IX of the Education Amendments was passed by the U.S. Congress in June 1972, and signed into law on July 1, 1972. Title IX provides federal civil rights that prohibit sex discrimination in education programs and activities including, but not limited to:

- Admissions
- Financial Aid
- Academic Affairs
- Career Services
- Student Services

Title IX on a College Campus

The protection of Title IX extend to sexual harassment and sexual assault or violence that impairs or interferes with access to equitable educational and employment opportunities. Individuals at EBI are protected by Title IX— regardless of their sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, part or full-time status, disability, race, or national origin.

Title IX is applicable to all members of the campus community, individuals doing business with the campus, those utilizing campus facilities, those who engage in volunteer activities in connection with or for EBI.

Each school must designate a Title IX Administrator to review, update, and implement current Title IX policies to coordinate appropriate training and resources, and ensure effective and timely responses to complaints of sexual violence, misconduct, discrimination, or harassment.

The Title IX Coordinator or designated Assistant Administrator will work with you to gather information on your complain and provide available resources that can be helpful to you. There are certain immediate steps we can take to help you feel safer, and you may change your mind about participating in their process at any time. Cases are considered individually and prompt review is based on a majority of evidence.

If you choose to move forward, the Title IX coordinator will work with appropriate offices to ensure tat the reporting individual, respondents and witnesses are treated fairly and that respectful and timely communication occurs.

What Should I Report?

The College is committed to ensuring a community that is safe for all who study, work, and visit here. We understand that this can be difficult to discuss, but notification to one of the campus resources is critical to fulfilling our commitment to you.

EBI encourages individuals to report sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking in accordance with both Title IX and the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA). Title IX protects students, employees, applicants for admission and employment, and other persons from all forms of sex discrimination, including discrimination based on gender identity or gender expression. Sexual discrimination, harassment, assault, misconduct or violence can take many forms, including any sexual contact that lacks mutual consent.

Sexual harassment includes stalking or the distribution, display or discussion of any written, graphic, visual, or spoken material that is sexual in nature and has the purpose or effect of threatening, intimidation or interfering with a person or person’s ability to study or work. It would be a violation of College Policy, New York State, and/or Federal Law and should be reported immediately.

Retaliation against anyone who reports in good faith or participates in the investigative process is prohibited. Individuals who engage in retaliation may be subject to sanctions as determined by the college.

A Message from EBI Senior Vice President

At EBI, we want our Faculty, Staff, and Students to not only feel safe and secure but welcomed and supported. Thank you for your support in fostering an environment that is inclusive, safe, rewarding, and free of all forms of sexual violence, harassment, exploitation, or intimidation.

~Kathleen M. Hamilton, Senior Vice President
